March 1, 1916. My first visit to the country here was in 1914. I was then a boy of 15 and I often regret it did not fall out to have been later in the country. So many of the letters I receive come from girls and boys from all over the world. To them the coming of the moving picture has been a revelation and a better relationship with the outside world.

When the girl on the farm writes to me and says, "I envy you, Miss Pickford, you are a city girl," by return mail there goes a letter from me with "Little Miss Country Girl, I know you."

At the same time, I can appreciate that perhaps they are growing tired of what they have been accustomed to. They want to long for a city change as much as I do to dream over the innumerable seasons in the country. We are all to be pitied when we do not have the experiences which we desire. I think we have a great deal to be pitied when we do not have the experiences which we desire. I think we have a great deal to be pitied when we do not have the experiences which we desire.

SOME POND RECOLLECTIONS. When I think of the country, one of my first recollections is of the early morning in the apple orchard. I climbed high into the branches of an old gnarled tree which was in full perfume bloom, and sat there for an hour or so, looking out across a sun-drenched valley, dotted with a few scattered fields, and in the distance, the blue hills of the country.

SOME TIME OR NOW

It has been said there are just two kinds of people in this world—those who are always getting ready to do something, and those who do it.

Continuous headaches or falling vision—the inevitable result of incessant eyestrain—is nature's warning that your eyes need prompt and efficient attention. Obey the impulse.

Have your eyes examined now.

For making good the over-draught on eye energy and vitality, thousands have found the answer in properly fitted eyeglasses.

Have you? Our service is the best, and is at your disposal—free.

SEIZE ALL MAIL

Britain's Reply to U.S. Quotes Her Rights.

Washington, Feb. 29.—Great Britain's reply to the American note of protest against her seizure of mails on the high seas has been handed to the high seas by the British government.

The arguments set forth by Great Britain were outlined tonight by a statement issued by the British government.

(1) The fundamental doctrine of the Hague Convention is that mails are inviolable, and that any language used elsewhere does not affect this inviolability.

(2) The United States has already in the past violated the Hague Convention, and has been repeatedly warned by Great Britain.

(3) The seizure of mails by Great Britain is justified by the fact that the mails are used for the transmission of secret communications.

RATES AGAIN UP.

War Risk Insurance in U.S. On Shipping Jumps.

(By Times Special Wire.) New York, March 1.—Rates of war risk insurance on transatlantic steamers and cargoes have advanced today in anticipation of the enforcement of Germany's policy of sinking armed merchant ships without warning.

The quotation on vessels bound for Mediterranean ports was increased to two per cent, upon the receipt of cables from London, stating that similar rate had been imposed there.

Previously the rate had been about one per cent, but rising over a year and a half on specially valuable cargoes.

The war risk quotation on vessels destined to England and French ports the stiffened, and ranged from one to one and a half per cent. The highest rate quoted in recent weeks on this business was one and a quarter per cent.

The reported presence of German raiders off the coast of Brazil caused a sharp rise in the rate of insurance on vessels in the South American trade to stand firmly at three per cent.

British Press Confident Over Sub. Campaign.

(By Times Special Cable.) London, March 1.—The newspapers this morning edify on the fact that the British government has announced that it is confident of the success of its submarine campaign.

One of the latest agricultural buildings in Canada was totally destroyed and a loss of nearly $40,000 sustained in a fire which consumed the large barn and granary on the farm of Mr. W. G. Goodenham, of Toronto, located on the north shore of Lake Huron.

Mr. Goodenham, 54, a member of the Ontario legislature, was in the building when the fire broke out, and escaped with only minor injuries.

CONFESSIONS OF A WIFE

THE LITTLE JADE GOD OF DREAMS.

I've a perfectly terrible confession to make to you, little book.

Just now I am in the hands of a very clever idea on my part to please you entirely by not saying a word of the kind of man I am.

SUE "WARFARE"

Unarmed Ships Sunk Without Warning by Huns.

London, Feb. 29.—The Admiralty tonight made public a list of "unarmed British vessels torpedoed and sunk by enemy submarines without warning up to the end of 1915. It comprises 39 steamers and one trawler.

A list also was given of neutral vessels said to have been torpedoed in the same period without warning.

The list included 13 steamers and one sailing vessel, of which two, the Quif and the Nebraska, were American.

Four Norwegian, four Swedish, one Dutch, one Danish, one Greek and one Portuguese.

"In addition to the above," says the Admiralty statement, there are several cases in which there is no reasonable doubt that the vessel was sunk by a torpedo fired without warning from a submarine, but in the absence of actual proof, due to a lack of survivors, or from other causes, these cases are omitted from the list."

117 GENERALS IN EGYPT?

London, Feb. 29.—Under-Secretary for War Tennant this afternoon admitted that the British government was in reply to the question whether it was true that there are now 117 Generals in Egypt.

"If there is a force in Egypt," he said, "with emphasis on the 'if' it is certainly not 117 Generals as necessary."

60 YEARS OLD, 19 BIRTHDAYS.

Stratford, Feb. 29.—Mr. Sam Robb was born eighty years ago today in the township of Dore, but he has had only nineteen birthdays, owing to the fact that his natal day was February 29. Not only is Mr. Robb the oldest native-born pioneer of Dore, and possibly of all Perth County, but he is as active as most men half his age.

ALICE'S PETS, A CLEVER ACT' AT THE TEMPLE THIS WEEK.

MADRID STRIKE

Bakers Trouble Grows General, and Riots Follow.

(By Times Special Cable.) London, March 1.—A. Reuter dispatch from Madrid says that a strike which began among the bakers of that city on account of the high price of flour has developed into a general strike, and brought trade to a standstill. Riots have occurred, and several persons have been injured.

With regard to the German submarine campaign, the dispatch adds that the British government is confident of the success of its submarine campaign.

The new threat accordingly is not made the object of ridicule, and it is suggested that Germany in all probability has been producing new and more powerful submarines. This suggestion, however, is not made.

That an optimistic spirit should be felt, and that there has been no serious change in the power of the British navy to cope with any new developments at sea.

BOMB PLOTTERS.

Germans Blamed in "Tennyson" Case Disappear.

(By Times Special Wire.) Rio Janeiro, March 1.—A dispatch from Rio de Janeiro says that the authorities there, as the result of an investigation which they have made, have concluded that the bomb plotter in the case of the disappearance of the Tennyson, a British steamer, was a German.

The police say the latter cannot be found, as with their families they have fled to the United States.

That the Babie office of the Bremer Company, of which New York was the agent, has also been closed.

On February 21st the British steamer Tennyson, of the Lamport & Holt Line, put into port at Maranhao, badly damaged as the result of a bomb explosion which caused the death of three of the crew, an American, an Englishman, and a Dutchman.

It was later stated that a box containing three of the crew was put on board the steamer at Bahia by instruction of a German merchant.

LIVING COST ROSE ONE-HALF IN CANADA

General Increase Greater in Last 14 Years Than in Any Other Country.

POORER CLASSES LIVE POORER —Better Class Workmen Have Better Surroundings

Ottawa, Feb. 29.—A supplementary report of the High Cost of Living Commission, edited by R. H. Coates, Chief Dominion Statistician, was presented to Parliament today. It is an important item in the series of the various statistics gathered by the Commission relative to the economic causes of the rise in prices and in the cost of living in Canada between 1900 and 1919.

Some of the more interesting points brought out may be briefly stated. It is pointed out that during the period under review the rise in the cost of living has been approximately 50 per cent. The retail prices of more than thirty articles which enter chiefly into domestic consumption have advanced 40 per cent, while the rents are up 60 per cent. The general increase has been more rapid in Canada than in other countries, varying in the various leading countries of Europe, together with Japan, Australia, New Zealand and the United States, the rise in retail prices has been about 31 per cent., as compared with 40 per cent. in Canada.

Dealings with the question of the distribution of capital, and the relation between the two, is also a subject of the report, which contains various statistics by declaring that during the decade 1910-1919 the equipment of the primary industries of agriculture, fishing and mining increased by 160 per cent., while in construction and "secondary" industries (railways, cables, manufactures, etc.), the increase was 100 per cent. In other words, the production between the two wars was 4 to 1. If the years 1910 to 1919 were added, with their intensification of the industry, the production would probably be 6 to 1.

With regard to urban and rural life, the statistics show that during the decade the city population rose from 38 per cent. to 46 per cent. of the whole population, while the rural population decreased from 62 per cent. to 54 per cent. In 1910 the rural population was 54 per cent. to 46 per cent. in 1919.

Taking the total values of farm production, minerals, fish, fish and furs in 1901 and 1911, respectively, a gain of about 50 per cent. is shown. Against this, there has been a doubling of manufacturing output, a quadrupling of the scale of building operations. Dealing with the question of consumption and the standard of living, the report, after quoting various statistics of "extraneous" nature, states that the people at large, upon the whole, are better off than in 1901. Dealing with the question of consumption and the standard of living, the report, after quoting various statistics of "extraneous" nature, states that the people at large, upon the whole, are better off than in 1901.

An analysis of approximate incomes and expenditures shows that the average household cost in 1915 about the same per cent. of current income as in 1900, the percentage going for rent has risen from 20.5 per cent. to 24.7 per cent., an increase only to be met by economy in other items. It is pointed out that the average annual average earnings in manufacturing establishments increased 40 per cent. between 1900 and 1910, and that the total value of the product of the total value had declined from 23.5 per cent. to 20.5 per cent.

GRAIN RECORD

Grand Trunk Elevator at Fort William Made It.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Elevator at Fort William, Ont., has established a wonderful record for the handling of grain, during the past season. The elevator has never been so busy as it has been this year, and the port of big records and marvellous achievements in moving grain. The following figures are interesting and show the volume of business:

Unloaded from cars between Oct. 1 to Dec. 25, 21,944,000 bushels, or 18,500 cars; average per working day at 127,000 bushels; 241 cars; 2,410,000 bushels; loaded into cars, 5,600,000 bushels; loaded into bins in November, 5,967,000 bushels; average loaded into bins, 28,000 bushels; loaded into bins between Dec. 1 and 31, 5,700,000 bushels; daily average loaded into bins, 190,000 bushels; hours complete cargo, an average per hour of 42,000 bushels; loaded in 44 months complete cargo, an average of nearly 63,000 bushels, per hour, 255,000 bushels.

MINES ON COAST OF GREAT BRITAIN

Maloja Survivor Says Subs. Are Laying Them.

Chief Officer Claims She Was Torpedoed.

Dover, Feb. 29.—The inquiry into the death of the Maloja which was reported here to-day. The investigation was chiefly notable because of the evidence of the chief officer of the steamer, who expressed a belief that she had been torpedoed. This opinion was not sustained, other witnesses expressing the opinion that the navigators of the Maloja gave a mine and tried to avoid striking it, but were unable to do so.

It was also brought out that only fragments of the bodies recovered have as yet been identified. General McCord, whose wife was among those who died, said that the liner Maloja struck a mine and sank off Dover on Sunday, testified at the inquiry to-day into the death of 155 of the liner's passengers.

"My wife and I rushed for lifeboats when we heard the explosion," said the general. "I then turned to help with the launching of the boats, but this time it was useless to try to put away any more on account of the heavy sea."

"I threw Mrs. McCord into the water and then jumped in myself, swimming and supporting her for half an hour. When a trawler picked us up Mrs. McCord was unconscious. We didn't survive her."

That German submarines have been sowing mines off Dover was the belief expressed to-day by Ralph Porter, of Kansas, and other survivors of the Maloja disaster, including some of the officers of the ship. The fact that a number of German submarines have been in the neighborhood of Dover during the past two Sundays is considered as possible evidence that German submarines, knowing that a number of British ships were in the area, had taken advantage of this fact to creep in as near the coast as possible and lay down a mine field.

In the opinion of Mr. Porter, lifeboats were useless unless there were lifeboats strike mines, as the ships must have been struck by a mine. The fact that the ship was torpedoed is considered as evidence that German submarines were in the area.

It was also brought out that the ship was struck by a mine. The fact that the ship was torpedoed is considered as evidence that German submarines were in the area.

CROWN PRINCE NEAR VICTIM

French Thought They Had Hit Him in the Caures Wood.

Which Was Tomb of a German Division.

(By Fred B. Pitney.)
Paris, Feb. 29.—How the woods of Caures, near Verdun, became the grave of an entire division of the offensive French army was told to-day by a wounded French soldier who was one of a trainload that arrived early in the evening.

The German Crown Prince, declared the narrator of a tale as thrilling as any that have been told during the war, narrowly escaped falling into the trap which French engineers had cleverly prepared for him. So close was the heir to the German throne when he was in the Caures woods that he was almost within reach of the French soldiers who were waiting for him.

"When the first German advance guard entered the woods, the soldiers realized that an offensive movement of no common force was under way. The French soldiers were waiting for him.
